Stamping Ground Takes the Alabama Stakes at 20 to 1—Rostand Beats Trin-By Bell and Keene's Gimerack Trims High Chancellor-King Pepper Wins

SARATOGA, Aug. 4 .- A cold, cheerless day with steady rain made the racetrack a dismal place this afternoon, only the regulars turning out to see the sport. The course was a sea of sloppy mud, which caused many of the trainers to keep their horses under cover. The racing provided bitter disappointment to W. C. Whitney and John A. Drake. Mr. Whitney's star three-year-old fillies. Girdle and Judith Campbell, were badly beaten in the $5,000 Alabama Stakes, while his much talked of two-year-old, Stalwart, was trimmed in the first event, chiefly because of a poor start. Mr. Whitney's Mineola was also beaten in the third race. Mr. Drake and the Western contingent plunged on his mare, Trinity Bell, in the second race and again on his threeyear-old, High Chancellor, in the closing event only to see them go down to defeat. All of these horses were favorites and as only one first choice passed the judges in front the ring pocketed some heavy winnings.

The Alabama Stakes, for three-year-old fillies, at a mile and a sixteenth on the turf, was the feature of the day. Mr. Whitney's Judith Campbell and Girdle were coupled and the big bettors loaded the money on until and the big bettors loaded the money on until they closed at 11 to 5. Astarita was at 4 to 1, with Wild Thyme at sixes, and J. B. Haggin's Ada Nay went down to fives. F. R. Docter's Stamping Ground, by Lamplighter, got the cleverest kind of a ride from Fuller and won by two lengths with 20 to 1 about her. The Whitney fillies both got away well, but finished far back in the ruck. Astarita was in front at the half mile pole, with Gravina, 15 to 1, and Stamping Ground pressing her closely. Then the Mexican Stable's filly began to tire under her heavy impost. Ada Nay made a bold bid to get up at the head of the stretch, as did Wild Thyme, but they stopped, and Gravina in a drive took place money from Astarita by a length. The time was 1584-5.

The Western contingent, headed by Jack King, the Chicago plunger, made a killing in the first race, for two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs, taking $20,000 out of the ring. They backed Woodford Clay's Sir Dixon filly Memories from 20 to 1 to tens, O'Neill driving her home two lengths in front of Stalwart.

Dixon filly Memories from 20 to 1 to 10 feb., o'Neill driving her home two lengths in front of Stalwart.

Drake & Co. made Trinity Bell an 11 to 10 favorite in the second event, at a mile, but she was easily beaten by the Hampton Stable's Rostand, who made all the running and was well in hand at the end with three lengths over the Drake mare. Dinksie, the outsider, beat Lady Potentate by a neck.

H. M. Ziegler and his associates cleaned up well when his Deceiver cott Bobadil, hammered down to 5 to 1, took the third race, for maiden two-year-olds, at five and a half furlongs. Mr. Whitney's Mineola, odds on, ran second, three lengths away.

Frank Farrell's King Pepper was the only successful favorite. He was heavily played at evens, and won the fifth race, at six furlongs, in a gallop by four lengths from E. R. Thomas's Yardarm in 1:16 3-5. Birch Broom, the Brighton Oaks winner, was third, a half length back.

In the concluding event, at a mile, James R. Keene's Gimcrack, 8 to 5, held High Chancellor safe at all stages and beat him easily by three lengths in 1:43 4-5. It was a field day for Fuller, who rode three winners.

SARATOGA RACING GOSSIP. Old Jockey Willie Martin Manipulates Successful Coup on Memories.

SARATOGA, Aug. 4 .- A conspicuous char acter about the Saratoga track these days is Willie Martin, remembered by old timers as one of the bestriders, perhaps, that the American turf ever saw. Martin has not ridden since he was set down at this very track some six years ago in connection with his riding of a horse named Adolph Spreckels owned by Corrigan, the San Francisco turfman, in a race that was won the by The Bachelor, running in the Whitney colors and trained at the time by Sam Hildreth, Martin was never afterward able to have his license restored. He is East this season as betting commissioner for a clique of Western bettors, whose money was responsible for a sensational plunge on Woodford Clay's Sir Dixon filly, Memories, who won the race to-day after having been backed from 30 to 1 to 10 to 1. The Western outfit was credited with taking about $20,000 out of the ring on the play. Martin's first winning mount was on a horse named Notuna, owned by G. B. Morris, in a race run at Brighton Beach in 1884. Notuna was at 150 to 1 in the betti ng. One of the best winnings of the day was made by Joe Yeager, the Western plunger, who bet $3,000 on Gravina "to show" in the Alabama Stakes, getting as good as 3 to 1 for the money. Yeager, however, lost back the greater part of his winnings by a losing plunge on High Chancellor, the favorite for the last race. Yeager's money forced High Chancellor's odds down to 9 to 10 for a time, but later a plunge on James R. Keene's Gim-but later a punge on James R. Keene's Gim-crack reduced the latter's odds from 2 to 1 to 7 to 5, and High Chancellor closed with the bookies offering even money. A man who refused to give his name made a big bet on Memories in the first race on a curious "hunch." "See here, my man," he called out to a grand stand messenger, "what is the price about Memories—dear old Memories?"

Memories? To be about Memories—dear old Memories? Upon being told that it was then 15 to 1, the man nulled two five-hundred dollar bills from a roli and said, "Bet this on Memories as far back as you can. My wife used to be in love with a man named Clay and I think Memories, owned by a Clay, is good to be in the money." The messenger got odds of 3 to 1. So the plunger on bygone memories was $3,000 to the good after the race. This was said to be the largest casual bet intrusted to a grand stand messenger this season. Woodford Clay, owner of Memories, by the way, is a member of the noted Clay family of Fayette county, Ky.

Heroic measures are being taken to save the life of John H. Drake's colt South Trimble, who was so badly injured by his fall in the running of the Saratoga Handicap. It developed during last night that the colt's chief injuries were to one eye, which was displaced by the shock, and a bad rupture of the bones of the nasal passage. By particular orders from Mr. Drake Trainer Enoch Wishard refrained from shooting the horse and employed a veterinary surgeon to place a silver tube through the ruptured nasal passage to assist the horse in breathing while the fractured bones are setting. It is hoped also to save the injured eye. As an experiment in equine surgery the outcome is being watched with interest.

the injured eye. As an experiment in equine surgery the outcome is being watched with interest.

Frank Farrell is conducting his betting operations on a modest scale so far. He had only a small wager on King Pepper in the fifth race, though he regarded the bet as almost a certainty, provided his old Kantaka gelding succeeded in getting away from the post. The King ran without blinkers and behaved much better than usual. He broke in front and from that point to the finish it was only a gallop for him. He reveiled in the mud, as usual, and but for his cranky disposition at the barrier would have been a 1 to 2 shot instead of at even money.

John A. Drake was not greatly in evidence in the ring to-day, a modest wager of $4,000 on his mare Trinity Bell in the first race being about the only venture to speak of.

The third race was a heavy betting event, three of the five starters being in turn the mediums of heavy plunges. First the followers of the Whitney stable backed, Mineola down to 3 to 5. Then Charlie Cash and others went at Glad Tidings for a goodly sumat long odds, and finally John Fay and the Ziegler following plunged on Bobadil.

President Charles C. Bush of the Crescent City Jockey Club, New Orleans, was at the track to-day. He said that his association would again have 100 straight days of racing next winter and expected the most prosperous meeting in its career.

The original suit against the Buffalo Gasolene Motor Company was brought at Buffalo on July 12, 1900, by the Electric Vehicle Company, the former owner of the patent. The defendants filed a demurrer on Nov. 30 of the same year. This demurrer was overruled by Judge Hazel. The patent is now the property of the Licensed Association of Automobile Manufacturers, which is endeavoring to restrict the manufacture of gasolene motor vehicles to its own members, with the stated object that a profit may be insured to the automobile building business and the industry may be developed in this country.

Baseball Notes.

Washington, Aug. 4.—A change of ownership in the Washington Baseball Club is imminent. There has been much dissatisfaction as to the management of the club, and an effort is being made by the local stockholders to acquire control of the company. Since yesterday President Fred Postal of Detroit has increased his holdings of stock from 48 per cent. to 52½ per cent. but is willing to sell out at a fair price, in which event he will purchase a large interest in the Detroit club. Heretofore Mr. Postal has been necessarily a silent partner in the management of the Washingtons, but unless the local minority holders of 47½ per cent. assume complete control of the company, radical changes in the club will undoubtedly follow, beginning with the removal of Tom Loftus as manager. President Ban Johnson is here to ratify any deal that may be made.

Intercollegiate Team Against Oxford and Cambridge-Change in Dates.

I. H. Conklin, secretary of the Intercollegiate Golf Association, in a letter sent on Monday from Chicago, gives the follow ing as the make-up of the team to play the Oxford and Cambridge Golfing Society on Monday at Myopia. He has selected Frank O. Reinbart, Percy R. Pyne, 2d, J. Whitney Baker and L. H. Conklin, Princeton; N. Stewart Campbell, F. J. O. Alsop, Percy R. ennings and Bruce D. Smith, Yale, and U Murdock, G. Owen Winston and W. C Chick, Harvard. The twelfth man has no been decided on as yet. H. Chandler Egan, Walter E. Egan, Harold B. McFarland and H. B. Hollins, Jr., who were in the semifinals in the intercollegiate championship last fall-which subsequently was won by H. Chandler Egan, with Harold B. McFarland as runner-up-and Louis N. James, the amateur champion, for different reasons have been unable to accept Secretary Conklin's invitation to play on the team.

Bruce D. Smith is the only Western player on the team. He is a brother of Walter Smith, runner-up to Findlay Douglas in the amateur championship of 1898. Bruce D. Smith is now playing a strong game, and on Sunday broke the amateur and professional record for the 6,250-yard Onwentsia course with 74. The Intercollegiate team will be at Boston on Saturday, according to Conklin, when the members expect to play informal matches with the Englishmen.

President Windeler of the U. S. G. A. notified Secretary Ballou yesterday of a change in the plans for the Oxford and Cam bridge team made at an Executive Committee meeting of the Massachusetts State Association, made necessary by the fear that the Mayflower, on account of the delay that the Mayflower, on account of the delay by grounding in the Mersey, will not arrive until Saturday or Sunday. The match with the Intercollegiate team has been changed to Tuesday, Aug. 11, and with the State team, at the Essex County club, to Aug. 13. As a consequence the visitors will not be able to get to Chicago until the evening of Aug. 15, and President Martin of the Western Golf Association was also notified yesterday to change the date for the match with the Western Golf Association, at Wheaton, to Aug. 17; also to put off the match with the All-Chicago team, scheduled for Glen View on Aug. 18, for a day. After this match the Oxford and Cambridge players will start for this city to see the yacht races and to fuffil their Eastern engagements.

The Cedar Rapids Golf Club and the Ravins-loe Country Club of Homewood, Ill., have been elected allied members of the U. S. G. A.

Programmes are out for the annual tournament of the Stockbridge, Mass., Golf Club, on Sept. 8, 9, 10 and 11. Copies may be obtained of the secretary, Robert C. Stetson, at Stockbridge.

Circulars will be mailed to-day to each club in the United States Golf Association containing the formal announcement of the conditions of the amateur championship at the Nassau Country Club, on Sept. 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, Tuesday to Saturday. As the event and 5. Tuesday to Saturday. As the event is to be at match play throughout, with the final at thirty-six holes, there will be no pre-liminary round prizes, the play being for the possession of the Havemeyer trophy and the usual gold, silver and two bronze medals. The draw is to be made publicly by the executive committee. The entries, which must be sent by the club secretary, close with Secretary Ballou, on Tuesday, Aug. 25.

Barutel Passes Jevne and Leads by On Point at Three Cushions.

Lloyd Jevne, the champion, and Louis Barutel, the French expert, resumed their three-cushion 150-point match last night at Maurice Daly's academy. Jevne led at the end of Monday night's play block, when the score was 50 to 48, and the contest will be finished to-night. They were slow in getting under way last night, Barutel being the first to count with a "natural" of four cushions. Both men were bothered several times by Both men were bothered several times by kisses. The score was 7 to 6 in Jevne's favor at the end of the sixteenth inning.

A cushion-first shot of peculiar tracing by Barutel in the twenty-eighth inning brought out applause and made Barutel's total for the night just double his opponent's, 18 to 9 being the figures. Jevne made one of the same sort soon afterward. Barutel reached the half-way mark first, having 25 points to Jevne's 20. In his fifty-fifth inning the Frenchman made his second run of 4. Jevne smacked the balls hard for a run of 3, long-distance counts, and followed with 2 more, after which he was nine behind on the evening.

Jevne gave his opponent doses of safety near the finish, and playing strongly himself closed the gap rapidly. His last run was one of 4, and then Barutel went out, the night's winner by 1 point, with a three-cushion bank.

EVEN BREAK IN LAWN TENNIS.

INTERNATIONAL TEAMS EACH TAKE A MATCH AT LONGWOOD.

R. F. Doherty Defaults to Larned Because of a Strained Shoulder-H. L. Doherty Defeats Wrenn in Straight Sets-Englishman's Mishap May Cripple Team.

BOSTON, Aug. 4. - The first day of the international competition at Longwood for the Davis lawn tennis trophy resulted in a victory for each team. The American victory was brought about by the default of R. F. Doherty, the unbeaten champion of Great Britain, to William A. Larned, the American champion. The Englishmen gained their win by the superiority of H. L. Doherty over R. D. Wrenn in the first match of the series. Doherty won in straight sets by the scores of 6-0, 6-3 and 6-4. The defeat of the American player was a decisive one and Doherty did not have to extend himself to bring about the result. He was Wrenn's superior at all times, and from the start of the match played as if he was confident of the

The elder Doherty gave up his match with Larned because of a strained right shoulder. Just before the time set for the matches to begin it became noised about the clubhouse that Doherty would not play and that Harold S. Mahoney would be substituted for him in the match with the American champion. Stories were rife that Doherty had fallen on the courtawhile at practice yesterday and wrenched his playing shoulder severely, but later it was learned that during the final set of the doubles match with the Wrenn brothers at Nahant on Saturday he had strained the shoulder. Since Saturday Mr. Doherty has been under the careful treatment of a local physician, and while he could have played this afternoon it was thought best to give the shoulder another day of perfect rest. Yesterday afternoon Doherty played a few minutes against his brother and Mr.

Yesterday afternoon Doherty played a few minutes against his brother and Mr. Mahoney. He returned the balls gently and not once during the practice did he use an overhand stroke, for fear of inflicting further damage to the ligaments. Although many spectators watched the practice, no one had a suspicion that the Englishman was in anything but perfect condition and the announcement, made by Dr. Dwight, president of the National Lawn Tennis Association, just before play begann in the Doherty-Wrenn match that R. F. Doherty had defaulted to Larned on account of illness, was a disappointment to the spectators.

For some time prior to the time set for the play to begin a conference of the English team and the officials of the association was held in the club house. The English visitors desired to substitute H. S. Mahoney to-day for the elder Doherty, but when they found by the rules governing the contest that Mahoney would have to continue in the singles of Thursday instead of his principal, it was decided to default. A victory for Larned was conceded by every one had Mahoney been put in against him in to-day's match, so that the default of Doherty did not militate against the challenging team.

Manager Collins of the English team said late this afternoon: "We have not decided what to do. Every possible attention is being given to Mr. Doherty's injured shoulder and we shall not decide until the very last moment before 8 o'clock to-night if he will represent Great Britain in the doubles match to morrow. It would weaken the doubles team to substitute Mr. Mahoney for R. F. Doherty, but at the same time, if the latter plays in the doubles, he runs a risk of damaging his shoulder so much that it will be useless in the singles match on Thursday. What course we shall pursue will be settled upon this evening."

This evening the announcement was made that if his condition was such that it would be impossible for him to do so the announcement would be made at 10 o'clock in the morning tha

Wrenn made six outs, eight drives into the net and had two double faults. Doherty scored ten points on placing. Wrenn placed three times successfully, gained four points on his opponent's net drives and one on an out.

In the second set Wrenn improved considerably. The first rush was over and he steadied down after Doherty won two games in succession, taking the third, fifth and seventh games. In this set Doherty's superb placing gained fifteen points for him. Eight points were made on Wrenn's outs, six on his hits to net and one on a double fault. The American placed six shots successfully, gained nine points on his opponent's net balls and six on his outs.

The third set was an interesting one, for Wrenn took a great brace after the Englishman was well along toward victory and captured the eighth and ninth games. Then, with the score 5—4 in his favor, Doherty put on steam and captured the last and deciding game without great difficulty. His placing in this set was the feature and Wrenn showed excellent judgment and skill at the same work. Doherty scored eighteen points on his places, while Wrenn had only three less to his credit. Both men drove into the net nine times, but Wrenn's outs exceeded Doherty's by one, the latter making seven.

The doubles match to-morrow will begin at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Reginald Brooks and Charles E. Sands Win in Newport Doubles. NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 4. The finals in the NEWFORT, R. I., Aug. 4.—The linais in the mixed doubles in lawn tennis, which have been in progress at the Newport Casino the past week, were played this morning when Mrs. Reginald Brooks and Charles E. Sands defeated Miss Fanny Iselin and Marion Wright. In spite of the cloudy weather there was a large gathering of spectators, and they saw the best tennis thus far this season. The match from the start was hotly contested, it taking four sets to decide the match.

Mrs. Reginald Brooks and Charles E. Sands beat Miss Fanny Iselin and Marion Wright, 6-1, 3-6, 6-3, 9-7. Collins Retains Western Lawn Tennis Championship.

CHICAGO, Aug. 4.-Kreigh Collins succes fully defended his title of Western lawn tennis champion by defeating A. C. Snow, winner of the Western championship tourney, in three straight sets, 6-0, 7-5, and 6-4. One set was played yesterday, the match being postponed by rain until to-day.

The victory of Kreigh Collins and L. H. Waldner in the Western championship tourney at Chicago gives that team the right to meet Ward and Ware, the Eastern champions, the match to take place at Newport during the present month. The winners of this contest will then meet the Doherty brothers to decide the championship of the United States.

Young Corbett May Not Meet Tommy Sullivan.

From present indications it looks as if from present indications it looks as if there will not be any fight between Young Corbett and Tommy Sullivan on Aug. 10 as scheduled. Both have signed articles of agreement to meet before the West End A. C., St. Louis. Young Corbett was to have left for St. Louis on Monday, but is still in the East. What is more, he has not started in to train, and it seems as if he will ask for a post-ponement or call the match off altogether. This is the second time the scrap has been deferred.

WITH THE HARNESS HORSES. Fast Work at Empire City in Preparation for Grand Circuit Meet. Empire City Park is fast taking on the gala appearance of Grand Circuit week. The horses that will take part in the contests next week are arriving and many that came earlier in the week did moderate work yesterday. On Saturday last James Gatcomb arrived with Audubon Boy, 2:031/4. Prince of Orange, 2:071/2; Wainscott, 2:101/2, and the rest of his stable.

On Sunday Jack Curry reached the track with Knox's Gelatine King, 2:01%, Pan Michael, 2:11¼, brother to Boralma, but a pacer; Crescent, 2:18¼; Nirvana, 2:14¼, and the rest of the stable owned by Dr. J. C. McCoy. Yesterday Curry had his horses out for the Crescent 2:15½; Nirvana, 2:14½, and the rest of the stable owned by Dr. J. C. McCov. Yesterday Curry had his horses out for the regular work.

Knox's Gelatine King after a slow warming mile was sent three good stiff working heats finishing each time under a drive. The first mile was paced in 12:05. The last half of the third mile was paced in 12:03 and the last quarter in 0:30¼. A "cooling" mile in 2:20¼ completed his morning's work. The gray trotter Crescent was sent several easy miles and one heat in 2:13. Pan Michael, 2:11¼, paced a mile in 2:10½ and Ethel's Pride covered the distance in 2:14.

James Gatcomb worked Prince of Orange, 2:07½, and the others, but not to the limit, as Thursday will be his regular day for fast work and the last preparation for the big events of next week. Prince of Orange is named to start in the 2:08 class trot on Monday against a field that will include Rythmic. 2:08, and Monte Carlo, 2:08.

George Spear did not work any of his horses but he drove the chestnut pacer Shorty, 2:11¼, five easy working miles, one being in the time of his record. In one slower mile worked in company with Pan Michael, 2:11½, the two horses paced the last quarter in 0:30¼, and Shorty was in front. Clarence Ware sent Oscar L., 2:08¼, a mile in 2:12.

The matinee trotters Edgewood, 2:12¾, and Equity, 2:12¼, both winners last week, the first in 2:10½, and the other in 2:10½, were harnessed together yesterday and given some preliminary work to the pole. They drove as one horse and will be started at the matinee to-morrow against the 2:14¼ made by The Monk, 2:05¼, and Louise Jefferson, 2:07½. If successful an attempt will be made at the Grand Circuit meeting to beat the team record of 2:12¼, that has stood for more than ten years.

In the first heat of the championship trot at the matinee of Saturday last, after Ida Highwood recovered from her disastrous break at the half mile pole, she was separately timed from the losed against the 1:59¼ of Star Pointer. Som

Halifax, Nova Scotia, Aug. 4.—Philadelphian cricketers have been coming to Hailfax from time to time during the past twenty years. LASKER'S CONDITIONS.

Champion Will Play Marshall for World's Chess Title and $2,000 a Side. F. J. Marshall, the Brooklyn chess master who some time ago challenged Dr. Lasker the world's champion, to a match, has re ceived an answer containing the conditions under which Lasker will play. In one important particular these are different from those the champion named in an interview given out by him in Germany. He now names £400 sterling.or $2.000, as the minimum amount a side for which he will undertake the contest with Marshall. As Marshall is in England, it will be well nigh impossible for him to raise the amount needed, unless his friends in this country take a hand in helping him out. In other respects Lasker's demands are not unreasonable. The text of the letter is as follows:

DRAR MR. MARSHALL: Your letter of June 28 was duly received. The conditions which a challenger of a championship title has to fulfil have been published some years ago in the Frenci Scesjournal La Strategie. I repeat the essential points for your information.

1. The stakes to be no less than £400 a side.

2. Time and place of match to be determined by the holder of the title.

3. The match to be eight up, draws not recount 4. The time limit to be 15 moves an hour. In regard to No. 2. I may add that, atthough all negotiations with clubs, &c. must go primarly through me, I should without any partiality profit ceived an answer containing the conditions through me, I should without any partiality profithe best offer. As to No. 1, I consider it a hardshift that chess champions should be obliged to find their own stakes, and hope that in no distant the an international chess organization will be formed to arrange championship matches on the basis purses.

Sincerely yours.

EMANUEL LASSER

Sincerely yours.
